	SIMPLE	CONTINUOUS You know exactly when the action takes place!	PERFECT SIMPLE	PERFECT CONTINUOUS You know exactly when the action takes place!
PRESENT FUTURE	I eat pizza. On Fridays -always – never – usually ---------- My train leaves tomorrow at 5.	I am eating pizza. I am eating pizza tomorrow. I am going to eat pizza	I have painted my house. Already - just - yet Today - this week - this month - this year (unfinished times)	I have been painting my house for the last two weeks. for - since (asking for time)
PAST	I ate pizza. Last week A week ago Yesterday This morning	Yesterday at 5 I was eating. I was eating when you called me. I was cooking dinner while you were cleaning the house.	I had done my homework before I went to the bar.	I had been doing my homework until you came home.
FUTURE	I will play tennis. (hopefully) Ok, I will play tennis. (instant decision)	Tomorrow at 5 I will be working on my Project.	I will have finished my homework by the time you come home.	I will have been doing my homework for two hours by the time you come home.
			I will have painted I will have been painting and now tomorrow at 5	.....

PRESENT PERFECT SIMPLE

1

Dynamic verbs

I have painted my house.

already - just - yet

today - this week - this month - this year

finished action ~~for~~ ~~since~~

Dynamic verbs are e.g. do clean draw buy build show run learn read ring eat cook etc.

PRESENT PERFECT CONTINUOUS

You know exactly when the action takes place!

I have been painting my house for the last two weeks.

finished action??? for since (asking for time)

PRESENT PERFECT SIMPLE

PRESENT PERFECT CONTINUOUS

You know exactly when the action takes place!

1

Dynamic verbs

I have painted my house.

already - just - yet

today - this week - this month - this year

finished action — ~~for~~ — ~~since~~

Dynamic verbs are e.g. do clean draw buy build show run learn read ring eat cook

---

I have been painting my house for the last two weeks.

finished action???

for — since — (asking for time)

2

Special verbs

I have worked in this company for 5 years.

finished action??? — for — since

Special verbs: work - live - study - teach

These 4 verbs have the same meaning in both, the simple and the continuous tense.

I have been working in this company for 5 years.

finished action??? — for — since

PRESENT PERFECT SIMPLE

PRESENT PERFECT CONTINUOUS

You know exactly when the action takes place!

3

stative verbs

I have never believed the story.

finished action???

for

since

Some verbs are not used in the continuous tenses. We call them stative verbs.
There are two different types of stative verbs:

non-continuous verbs		change meaning in continuous tense
like	sound	think	have
love	know	taste	see
hate	hope	smell	hear
want	understand
appear	prefer
own	imagine
Never used in –ing.		Used in –ing but the meaning changes.

~~I have never been believing the story.~~

I hear music coming towards me. (happening now)
I am ~~hearing~~ music coming towards me.
I am hearing voices. (something you imagine)

PRESENT PERFECT SIMPLE

I have never believed the story.

3

stative verbs

finished action????

for

since

I have known you for a long time.

I have understand

I have hoped

Change meaning (not active)

see: I have seen your brother. (with your eyes)

have: I have a dog.

taste: The soup tastes off.

think: I think I will do it.

PRESENT PERFECT CONTINUOUS

You know exactly when the action takes place!

~~I have never been believing the story.~~

~~I have been knowing him for a long time.~~

~~I have been understanding~~

~~I have been hoping~~

Change meaning (active)

see: I am seeing my boss this afternoon. (speaking to/meeting)

have: I am having a party next Saturday.

taste: I am tasting the soup.

think: I am thinking of moving.